

Money is still available through Harris County's Homeowner Disaster Recovery Program (HDRP) for homeowners whose homes were damaged during Hurricane Ike. The program will repair, reconstruct and /or elevate homes that qualify.

HDRP Case Managers will be at the Baytown Community Center every Wednesday in February to assist with the application process or answer any questions.

2407 Market St.
Baytown, TX. 77522
1:00 – 5:00 p.m.

To determine if you are eligible or to apply online, visit www.HarrisRecovery.org.

You may also call 877-332-8014 with any questions, or to apply by phone.
